Friday Night Films at the Hermitage

Norfolk, VA- The Hermitage Museum & Gardens will show two films on the back lawn of the Museum this August to kick off the new program, Friday Night Films at the Hermitage.

Enjoy the unique setting of the Hermitage Grounds for outdoor presentations of two classic films; Alfred Hitchcock's Dial M for Murder on Friday, August 13 and Some Like it Hot with Marilyn Monroe on Friday, August 27. Gates open at 6:30 p.m. with films beginning at 8:30 p.m. Admission is free for Museum Members, $5 for non-members. Cash bar and light refreshments will be available. Guests are invited to bring a blanket and/or chairs.

During the August 13 showing, guests will have the opportunity to take a behind the scenes tour of the upcoming exhibition Sailors' Dreams: Works by Cesar Romero before the film begins.

For more information on the Friday Night Film Series contact Megan Frost, Development and Membership Manager, at (757) 423-2052 ext. 205 or mf@thfm.org.

The Hermitage offers 45-minute guided tours, on the hour, of fifteen galleries filled with the Sloane family world-wide art collection, furniture, and history. The Visual Arts School houses classrooms, a complete ceramics studio, and darkroom photography facilities. Open daily 10-5, Sundays 1-5—closed Wednesdays and Thursdays. Free for Museum Members, children under 6, and Active Duty military. Admission: $5 for Adults, $2 for ages 6-18, and $3 for students. For more information on the museum and membership offerings call 757-423-2052 or visit www.thfm.org.
